Welcome!

The St. Pete Bike Co-op is a cooperative bike repair shop run by volunteers. We provide the parts, tools and expertise you need to help you fix and maintain your bike. We are a 501c3, tax exempt, non-profit, volunteer run, community organization. Your donations over and above membership fees are tax deductible.

Your responsibilities as a Member:

- Clean up after yourself and put away the parts and tools you use
- Respect the requests of Co-op Mechanics, Volunteers and Staff
- Respect other patrons
- Use our parts and tools with care
- Do not take tools from the Bench area
- Do not take parts or bicycles from the storage area without the consent of a Mechanic
- Do not steal from us!

If you violate any of these responsibilities, your membership may be revoked at anytime and you may be asked to leave. This is a safe space. Any sexism, classism, homophobia or racism will not be tolerated! This is a space where you will not be judged by your gender, sexual orientation, race, class or the type of bike you ride. You will be judged by your behavior. Mechanics, Staff and Volunteers of the St. Pete Bike Co-op reserve the right to refuse service to anyone. By signing this form, you agree to follow all the Member Responsibilities stated here. You further agree to take responsibility for your work at the Co-op and its effects on your safety. While the St. Pete Bike Co-op agrees to help you fix your bicycle, we cannot take responsibility for your safety or the safety of others while you are in visiting or when you leave the St. Pete Bike Co-op. In addition, we allow Members free use of tools and parts at their own risk; we cannot take responsibility for risks inherent in the use of our tools and parts, or for any injuries sustained while using our facility. Although all volunteer mechanics are screened for their skills, we cannot guarantee the soundness of their advice, nor the performance of your bicycle once your leave the St. Pete Bike Co-op. Ultimately, the safety and performance of your bicycle is your responsibility.

I, _____ , agree to these responsibilities.
